AUSTRALASIAN ASSOCIATION FOR DIGITAL HUMANITIES

To Our Members

The Australasian Association for Digital Humanities (aaDH) is making significant strides in advancing digital humanities research, teaching, learning, and collaboration throughout the region. In 2024-2025, we've witnessed notable engagement, particularly through our successful events, including the Canadian Australian Partnership for Open Scholarship (CAPOS) and this year's Digital Humanities Australasia (DHA2025) Conference, which has been a major focus of our work. This event aims to attract new members and strengthen our commitment to digital humanities research both in the Australasia region and internationally. We are dedicated to fostering interdisciplinary collaboration, supporting emerging scholars, and advancing digital humanities scholarship in Australasia.

We look forward to seeing you at our Digital Humanities Australasia conference in Canberra in 2025.

Kind regards,

Dr Tyne Daile Sumner
President, Australasian Association for Digital Humanities (aaDH)
